KICKED BY A MULE.-In Eagle Valley, 15 miles cast of Pioche, last Saturday evening, Willard Benyen, the youngest son of John Benyen, a settler in that valley, was kicked on the head by a vicious mule and terribly injured. The scalp was torn from the top of his forehead towards the upper portions of the head, the skull in some places being ex-posed. It is believed the skull was not fractured. The little sufferer is now in a fair way of recovery. His brother, who was with him at the time of the occur-rence fell in a fainting fit, and it re-quired an hour to resuscitate him. For these facts we are indebted to Mr. Joseph Millet, of Spring Valley, adjoin-ing Eagle. MINT SALOON.-The firm of Coleman

& Wilson, carrying on the Mint saloon, was dissolved on the 12th of the present month, by mutual consent. John Wilson continues business at the old stand. Mr. Wilson has temporarily closed the Mint for the purpose of renovation, panting, etc. The popular place of react will be again opened to the public on Saturday, April 25, in a condition that will commend it to favorable considera-A DRUNKEN husband, with five mother-

AFTERNOON SESSION. P. McCannon recalled—The work on the Hernes shaft went on from the first with but little interruption. Peter Shirts sworn—I now reside near the iron works in Iron county, Utah; first visited this mining district March 19, 1864; came with Box, Sherwood and Vandemark, arrived at the Warm Springs, in Meadow Valley, March 15, 1864; on the 16th started out and happened to strike the old Indian trail, which leads down to what is now know as Meadow Valley street; found Sill on the ground; while up there I made a location; I peeled a tree with my knife and wrote a notice on the tree, and went back to camp; the day I came up there was no one there but Sill; put no name but my own on the notice I wrote on the tree; on the 18th of March, 1864, I think there was not the second to the late. tree: on the 18th of March, 1864, I think there was not a singe claim but my own on the Shirts; I never drove a stake on the ground; I had nothing to do with making the record book at Salt Lake; I was confined to my bed, and was not able to get out; after getting well they had sold some claims; I don't know how many; they wrote something like certificates. [Some papers were here shown to the witness, who said that he did not know Sherwood's writing.]

Howard Livingston sworn.—I would not swear positively, but think the signature was in Sherwood's writing.

they had sent on a man to New York;

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.-Captain T. F. Hanly and Miss Hattie Higgins, both of this city, were last night united in the holy bonds of wedlock, at the new and elegantly furnished residence of the Captain—Judge Fuller officiating. A number of personal friends of the parties were invited to witness the interesting ceremony, after which the band of the Meagher Guards favored the party with a sweet serende. Accompanying the notice of the event was a basket of choice wine and a bountiful supply of the best Havanas. Our wishes are joined with their host of other friends that a life of uninterrupted felicity may be opened to the happy couple through the rosy portals of matrimony. May they, strong and blissful in mutual love, understood that I was to advance it to surmount and overcome the reverses in-cident to human existence, and, through long years of happiness, realize the poet's fancy, that

"Tis well to woo, 'tis well to wed.
For so the world has done
Since myrtles grew and roses blew
And morning brought the sun."

BOLD THIEVING AND CONSIDERATE THIEVES .- Night before last the room of P. L. Cowan, on McCannon street, was entered by a thief or thieves, bewas entered by a thief or thieves, be-tween 7 and 9 o'clock p. m., and all of his personal effects were abstracted— bedding, clothing, valise, etc. The next morning a new sack was found at the corner of the house containing all the private papers of Mr. C. which had been taken. They were neatly sewed together in a package, with a note attached re-questing the finder to return them to the room from which they had been taken. Glad some of the Pioche thieves are of the "honorable" and "high-toned" class.

THE THEATER LAST NIGHT,-Hussey & Lorraine, in connection with Miss Clifton, opened their engagement in the minstrel line at the theatre last night to a crowded house. No performances ever given in Pioche have been relished to a greater extent; round after round of applause greeted the performers from the irst raising of the curtain to its final fall. To-night a still more interesting pr gramme will be presented, which will gramme will be presented, which will be rich with many local hits, involving the Raymond-Hermes trial — Judges, jury. lawyers, witnesses, etc.

PRITCHARD'S FAST FREIGHT LINE -How could we dispense with this institution? Its business is now thoroughly systematized, its expedition and regularity being really wonderful. The train arparts on time, almost to the minute. The company have made great reductions in their rates. See their new advertisement in this issue.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMUSSIONERS .-The Board met on the 14th pursuant to adjournment. Bills were allowed to Mm. Stansfield, L. P. Davis, Wm. S. McKee, E. Schoppmann, Halpin & Co. and T. A. Stoutenburgh. This was all the business of importance that was transacted.

THE District Court room continues to be thronged. There has not been a day since the commencement of the trial of the Raymond-Hermes case that there have been vacant seats.

James STEARNS' mule train arrived yesterday from Toans, mainly loaded with merchandise for James Cronan and Bishoh & Lee. A LARGE quantity of stone-coal and fire-
